GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS BRAXTON TO INTERAGENCY COORDINATING COUNCIL

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed State Rep. R. Van Braxton of Kinston to the N.C. Interagency Coordinating Council for Children from Birth to Five with Disabilities and their Families.

Braxton (D-Greene, Lenoir, Wayne) is an independent insurance agent in Kinston. He received his Bachelor's degree in social work from East Carolina University.

The council assists the state of North Carolina in carrying out the requirements for participating in the Federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Amendments of 1991. The council provides early intervention services to children from birth through age five with, or who are at risk for developing disabilities. The council has 30 members, each serving a two-year term. The governor appoints all members.
